Entrance Hymn

NEH 437

Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore him;

Praise him, angels, in the height;

Sun and moon, rejoice before him,

Praise him, all ye stars and light:

Praise the Lord! for he has spoken,

Worlds his mighty voice obeyed;

Laws, which never shall be broken,

For their guidance he has made.

Praise the Lord! for he is glorious;

Never shall his promise fail;

God has made his saints victorious,

Sin and death shall not prevail.

Praise the God of our salvation;

Hosts on high, his power proclaim;

Heaven and earth, and all creation,

Laud and magnify his name!

Worship, honour, glory, blessing,
Lord, we offer to thy name;
Young and old, thy praise expressing,
Join their Saviour to proclaim.
As the saints in heaven adore thee,
We would bow before thy throne;
As thine angels serve before thee,
So on earth thy will be done.

First Reading

Exodus 20. 1–17

Read by Lorna Holder.

A reading from the book of Exodus.

Then God spoke all these words:

I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me, but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it.

Honour your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

You shall not murder.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour.

You shall not covet your neighbour's house; you shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.

Lent Prose

Second Reading

I Corinthians I. 18–25

Read by Guy Rowston.

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written,

‘I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.’

Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

Gospel Sentence

You search the scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that testify on my behalf.

Gospel

John 2. 13–22

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money-changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, 'Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a market-place!' His disciples remembered that it was written, 'Zeal for your house will consume me.' The Jews then said to him, 'What sign can you show us for doing this?' Jesus answered them, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews then said, 'This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

Offertory Hymn

NEH 360 (tune 3i Halton Hallgate)

Firmly I believe and truly
God is Three, and God is One;
And I next acknowledge duly
Manhood taken by the Son.

And I trust and hope most fully
In that Manhood crucified;
And each thought and deed unruly
Do to death, as he has died.

Simply to his grace and wholly
Light and life and strength belong,
And I love supremely, solely,
Him the holy, him the strong.

And I hold in veneration,
For the love of him alone,
Holy Church as his creation,
And her teachings as his own.

Adoration ay be given,
With and through the angelic host,
To the God of earth and heaven,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Stand Final Hymn
NEH 333

All my hope on God is founded;
He doth still my trust renew.
Me through change and chance he guideth,
Only good and only true.
God unknown,
He alone
Calls my heart to be his own.

Human pride and earthly glory,
Sword and crown betray his trust;
What with care and toil he buildeth,
Tower and temple, fall to dust.
But God's power,
Hour by hour,
Is my temple and my tower.

God's great goodness aye endureth,
Deep his wisdom, passing thought;
Splendour, light and life attend him,
Beauty springeth out of naught.
Evermore
From his store
New-born worlds rise and adore.

Daily doth th'Almighty giver
Bounteous gifts on us bestow;
His desire our soul delighteth,
Pleasure leads us where we go.
Love doth stand
At his hand;
Joy doth wait on his command.

Still from us to God eternal
Sacrifice of praise be done,
High above all praises praising
For the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call
One and all:
Ye who follow shall not fall.

Things to do this week

Exhibitions

St Saviour's and St Olave's school exhibition

This exhibition will showcase photography from different year groups from St Saviour's and St Olave's school. Previous exhibitions have included Year 8 sculptures looking at food at Lent, Year 9 Gargoyle animation puppets based on the Cathedral architecture, and GCSE students' oversized clay shoes tackling the theme of values and desires.

In the Refectory, 9.00am–6.00pm (Weekdays) and 10.00am–6.00pm (Weekend).

Ceramics from Morley College

In three different displays students of Morley College present a selection of ceramic objects in Lancelot's Link: Peckham cut bowls by Keith Lewis, made in response to local knife crime and a Morley College departmental collaborative project based on Kazimir Malevich's iconic painting from 1915, The Black Square.

A Tale of Two Southwarks: exhibition of mixed media art by Suchi Chidambaram and John Pheasant at Roast Restaurant, Borough Market (until April). Works include last year's The Grand Iftar at the cathedral and pictures of local residents.

Doubt* – Lent Art Installation by Susie MacMurray

Internationally renowned artist Susie MacMurray conceived the piece Doubt which is on display in the Cathedral through the connections of the weight of darkness and uncertainty suspended from above. It stems from a conversation Susie had with a soldier who had served in Afghanistan at the time that she was installing Cloud in the Great Hall, Winchester. They talked about PTSD and the effects that the pressure of extended periods of tension and anxiety have on the mind. The soldier spoke about how all the time he was in the war zone he felt a dark weight hovering behind his neck. It made Susie think of 40 days and 40 nights.

If you would like to know more about the artist and the installation please do look out for the leaflets and Prayer Card in the chancel and at the West end.

The Chapter is grateful to Frances Goodchild for bringing Susie MacMurray's work to their attention and, on this occasion, Frances is pleased to be noted as one of a group of generous funders bringing Doubt to fruition.

Fairtrade Fortnight 2018

Did you know Southwark Cathedral is a Fair Trade Cathedral? We have pledged to:

1. Use Fairtrade tea and coffee after services and for all cathedral meetings in the cathedral or offices for which we have responsibility.
2. Move forward on using other Fairtrade products (such as sugar, biscuits, fruit and flowers).
3. Promote Fairtrade during Fairtrade Fortnight and during the year through events, worship and other activities whenever possible.

Across the globe, millions of producers are unravelling a legacy of exploitation with Fairtrade, working hard to get a fair deal so that they can transform their communities. Buying Fair Trade goods means that producers receive fair prices for their produce, have employment protection rights and have to meet high environmental standards.

Together we are stronger, and more people choosing, sharing and talking about Fairtrade in the UK means more power to producers to break the stranglehold of poverty prices.

Southwark Cathedral invites you find out more about Fairtrade this Fairtrade Fortnight to see the life-changing difference that choosing Fairtrade makes.

What you can do this Fairtrade Fortnight:

Visit fairtrade.org.uk/fortnight for information and ideas.

Consider: buying Fairtrade whenever possible, or increasing the range of what Fairtrade you purchase. Raise the matter with your local supermarket if Fairtrade goods eg bananas are not on display.

Campaign: for example, Sainsbury's want to change 'Fair Trade' to 'Fairly Traded' (on their own terms) for their own suppliers. Change.org has a petition to request a change of mind.

Join in: we have a small Eco Group here to think about how to make Southwark Cathedral more environmentally – and Fairtrade – aware and proactive in all aspects of our life together.

If you would like to join in please contact mm@marionmarples.co.uk or gilly.myers@southwark.anglican.org

Mission Allocation 2017

The Mission Allocation Group is inviting suggestions from members of the congregation regarding the charities that Southwark Cathedral should be supporting financially from the 2017 offerings. We are looking for a spread of charities that, between them, cover the areas of work described by the five marks of Anglican Mission:

- To proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom
- To teach, baptise and nurture new believers
- To respond to human need by loving service
- To seek to transform unjust structures of society, to challenge violence of every kind and to pursue peace and reconciliation
- To strive to safeguard the integrity of creation and sustain and renew the life of the earth

Submissions must be made in writing on a nomination form, including your name and contact details, the name of the charity, the Charity Number, website address and a statement that they have a safeguarding policy. Further supporting material is also helpful, and any personal connections you might have with the charity.

Nomination forms can be found in the Mission Allocation pigeon hole. Please return completed forms to Julie Dyg via the Vergers by Friday 16 March 2018.

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overie Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
