NEH 490

Judge eternal, throned in splendour,
Lord of lords and King of kings,
With thy living fire of judgement
Purge this realm of bitter things:
Solace all its wide dominion
With the healing of thy wings.

Still the weary folk are pining
For the hour that brings release:
And the city's crowded clangour
Cries aloud for sin to cease;
And the homesteads and the woodlands
Plead in silence for their peace.

Crown, O God, thine own endeavour;
Cleave our darkness with thy sword;
Feed the faithless and the hungry
With the richness of thy word:
Cleanse the body of this nation
Through the glory of the Lord.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 5. 12–15

Read by Philip Feakin.

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy.

The Lord says this:

Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, as the Lord your God commanded you. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you. Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the Lord your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

All

This is the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 81. 1–10

At the beginning the response is played by the organist, sung by the choir and then sung by the congregation. It is sung once by all at R below.

Sing merrily to God our strength,
shout for joy to the God of Jacob.
Take up the song and sound the timbrel,
the tuneful lyre with the harp. R

Blow the trumpet at the new moon,
as at the full moon, upon our solemn feast day.
For this is a statute for Israel, a law of the God of Jacob. R

The charge he laid on the people of Joseph,
when they came out of the land of Egypt.
I heard a voice I did not know, that said:
'I eased their shoulder from the burden;
their hands were set free from bearing the load. R

'You called upon me in trouble and I delivered you;
I answered you from the secret place of thunder and proved you at the waters of Meribah.
'Hear, O my people, and I will admonish you:
O Israel, if you would but listen to me! R

'There shall be no strange god among you;
you shall not worship a foreign god.
'I am the Lord your God,
who brought you up from the land of Egypt;
open your mouth wide and I shall fill it.' R

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 4. 5–12

Read by Guy Rowston.

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

We do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness', who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies. For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you.

All This is the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Stand Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Sentence

Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy,
as the Lord your God commanded you.

Gospel

Mark 2. 23 – 3.6

One sabbath Jesus was going through the cornfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. The Pharisees said to him, 'Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?' And he said to them, 'Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions.' Then he said to them, 'The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath.'

Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man who had the withered hand, 'Come forward.' Then he said to the Parisees, 'Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?' But they were silent. He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, 'Stretch out your hand.' He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

Offertory Anthem

In God's word will I rejoice · Henry Purcell

Stand     Offertory Hymn
NEH 295

Let all mortal flesh keep silence
    And with fear and trembling stand;
Ponder nothing earthly-minded,
    For with blessing in his hand
Christ our God to earth descendeth,
    Our full homage to demand.

King of kings, yet born of Mary,
    As of old on earth he stood,
Lord of lords, in human vesture,
    In the body and the blood:
He will give to all the faithful
    His own self for heavenly food.

Liturgy of St James
Tr Gerald Moultrie

Stand     Eucharistic Prayer
Prayer G

Communion Anthem
Ave, verum corpus · Plainsong

Stand     Final Hymn
NEH 494 (tune Nun danket 413)

Christ is the world's true Light,
    Its Captain of salvation,
The Daystar shining bright
    To every man and nation;
New life, new hope awakes,
    Where'er men own his sway:
Freedom her bondage breaks,
    And night is turned to day.

George Wallace Briggs

In Christ all races meet,
    Their ancient feuds forgetting,
The whole round world complete,
    From sunrise to its setting:
When Christ is throned as Lord,
    Men shall forsake their fear,
To ploughshare beat the sword,
    To pruning-hook the spear.

Exhibitions

London Panoramas

This exhibition shows panoramic views across London from high points around the city showing the architectural skyline against dramatic dusks. John Duffin makes drawings and colour studies outside and then works on them as oil paintings in his studio, trying to capture the wide angle excitement of the city and his memories and associations with it over 30 years.

In the Refectory, 9.00am–6.00pm (Mon–Fri) and 10.00am–6.00pm (Sat/Sun).

Ceramics from Morley College

In two different displays students of Morley College present a selection of ceramic objects in Lancelot's Link: Peckham cut bowls by Keith Lewis, made in response to local knife crime and a Morley College departmental collaborative project based on Kazimir Malevich's iconic painting from 1915, The Black Square.

Broken Beauty: Artist Residency

Alison Clark will be Artist in Residence in the Cathedral to mark the first anniversary of the London Bridge attacks. Her specially commissioned piece Broken Beauty will incorporate prints made directly from parts of the building that have been damaged over the centuries through violence. This quiet installation will be displayed in the Retrochoir from 3 June together with two existing pieces on the theme of mourning, brokenness and beauty.

Bring a piece of clothing to repair and sewing/knitting equipment, sit together, mend and talk. This quiet gathering will take place in the Retrochoir in the Cathedral. The installations and the Mending Circle both demonstrate and reflect on the process of repair that acknowledges rather than hides damage and may in time lead to a new beauty.

Note: these are not taught sessions but an opportunity to mend in company. Open to people of all faiths and none.

Ordination of Father David Adamson

David Adamson, who is curate at St George the Martyr, St Hugh's, and the Cathedral, will be ordained as a priest on 7 July. Many of you will know David, and he would appreciate your prayers as he prepares for ordination; please do take an ember prayer card. All are welcome at the ordination at 11.00am in St Mary's Lewisham on the 7th, and at his first Eucharist at 11.00 on the 8th, at St George the Martyr, or at 9.30am on the 15th at St Hugh's.

Growing in Faith and Life The Bishop's Certificate in Discipleship

Beginning in September 2018 and based around the Diocese, including at Trinity House on Borough High Street, this one year's course is an excellent way of learning more about the Christian faith and journey. Peter Graystone, Assistant Director of Discipleship and Ministry says: 'The ten month course helps people learn about the Bible, doctrine and mission. And later on it becomes practical in nurturing people's spirituality and life of prayer. It's the ideal first step for people who are considering a call to be a Reader or SPA, or on a vocational journey that might result in ordination. But I'd recommend it to any Christian who wants to understand why they believe what they believe.'

More about the course can be found in the leaflets at the back of the cathedral.

Plastic bottles

Thank you to those who have donated plastic drinks bottles to the Education Centre in the past few weeks.

We now have plenty of clear bottles and do not need any more. However, we do still need more coloured ones (such as Sprite or Mountain Dew bottles). We can use (empty) bottles of any size; please do bring them to the Education Centre.

We've got an environmental theme and will be 'recycling' the bottles as we transform them into flowers!

Peter Wright on Sabbatical

Peter Wright is on a month's sabbatical in Australia and New Zealand where he will be giving organ recitals in Melbourne and Auckland. The first will be on the Cathedral organ in Melbourne which is a fine Lewis built in 1890, seven years earlier than ours at Southwark. The latter forms part of the Auckland Organists' Congress and will be played on the brand new instrument by Nicholsons in the recently completed Cathedral. Peter will also be working with choirs and adjudicating an organ competition – and hopefully having some time to explore the sights!

The Ordination of Lisa Bewick

We are delighted that Lisa Bewick, our Education Officer, will be ordained Deacon in the Cathedral on Saturday 30 June and will be a self-supporting Curate at St John's, Waterloo. In addition to her role as Education Officer and ministering at St John's, Lisa will spend the second Sunday of each month at the Cathedral supporting our ministry among families and young people. Chapter has identified our young people as a priority for the coming year and Lisa will help to make this a reality. Please remember Lisa in your prayers as she prepares for her Ordination.

Oberammergau 2020

Every ten years the people of the Bavarian village of Oberammergau fulfil their vow to God made in 1634 in thanksgiving for deliverance from the plague that was ravaging Europe by performing a Passion Play. Watching the play is an overwhelmingly powerful experience. As in the past we are organising two 'pilgrimages' to Oberammergau in 2020 and booking for them opens today. The first is with the Dean from 26 June – 3 July staying in the Tyrol and walking a section of Jacobsweg (the Austrian route of the Camino to Santiago) as well as visiting sights from the Sound of Music in Salzburg. The second is with Canon Michael Rawson and Canon Gilly Myers from 2–9 September staying in St Gilgen on beautiful Wolfgangsee with visits in the local area, lake steamer and mountain railway and a Sound of Music tour of Salzburg and other locations in the area. Brochures for both pilgrimage-holidays, each of which lasts a week, are available in the Cathedral and downloadable from southwarkcathedral.org.uk/worship-and-music/pilgrimage/#oberammergau. You can secure a place for a £200 deposit. A limited number of small bursaries are available to help meet the cost of the pilgrimage for those experiencing financial difficulties. Please contact the Sub Dean michael.rawson@southwark.anglican.org

The Great Get Together Bankside – Volunteers needed

We need volunteers for the Cathedral Stall at the Great Get Together Bankside on Sunday 24 June on Union Street through the afternoon. No previous experience is necessary - just a friendly personality and a willingness to chat with members of the public and to offer them a free drink. Please be in touch with the Sub Dean, michael.rawson@southwark.anglican.org, if you could spare an hour or two on 24 June.

The Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Saviour and St Mary Overie Southwark

In 606 a Convent was established on the south bank of the River Thames at the place from which the ferry used to cross over to the City of London. In 1106 an Augustinian Priory was established. From here they ministered to pilgrims and travellers, and to the sick and the needy of the area and the Word of God was faithfully preached and the sacraments celebrated. As part of their ministry, the Hospital of St Thomas was established (now located opposite the Houses of Parliament).

Following the Reformation, the Priory Church became a Parish Church. In many ways the building was sadly neglected but the gospel continued to be faithfully preached and the people of the parish cared for and taught. A parish school – now Cathedral School – was opened in 1704 following in the work already established in schools founded from the parish under a charter from Queen Elizabeth I.

The life, diversity and character of the area are revealed in the tombs and monuments within the church. Among them is that of John Gower (c. 1330-1408), poet and friend of Chaucer, whose Canterbury Tales begin in Southwark. Across the nave is a memorial to William Shakespeare, who spent much of his life in Southwark, and above it, a stained glass window depicting scenes from his plays. Edmund Shakespeare, John Fletcher and Philip Massinger are all buried in the Cathedral. Lancelot Andrewes, who translated the first five books of the Bible into English, is buried by the High Altar. He is a founding father of the Church of England. In the grounds is buried Mahomet, Chief of the Mohegan Tribe from New England and a memorial to him can be found in the churchyard.

Today in old and new buildings, this Cathedral continues to serve the people of its parish and the people of the diocese, to be a centre of teaching, of worship, prayer and pilgrimage; a place of inclusive welcome for all people. This continues to be a place of major regeneration and change as Bankside has once again become a residential area, a playground for London and a place where the arts are celebrated, as well as a growing centre for political, financial and legal decision making. Southwark Cathedral is the constant factor in an ever changing and exciting community in which we continue to proclaim a gospel of radical engagement with God and the world.

We therefore welcome you to this holy place which is both ancient and modern. Together we continue to serve the people of this area - those who are passing through, crossing the river, making a new home, coming to work or simply here to enjoy themselves – and the people who live here, in much the same way as our forebears did and with all those who have gone before us we do it all from a place of praise and worship of Almighty God.
